COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCES
Organizational session for 1990

DRAFT ANNOTATED PROVISIONAL AGENDA FOR THE ORGANIZATIONAL SESSION

1. Election of officers.

2. Adoption of the agenda.

3. Organization of work for 1990.

4. Programme of work for 1990.

5. Review of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997: conference and library services.

6. Other business.

ANNOTATIONS

1. Election of officers

1. Rule 103 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly provides that committees other than Main Committees:

> "... shall elect a Chairman, one or more Vice-Chairmen and a Rapporteur. These officers shall be elected on the basis of equitable geographical distribution, experience and personal competence."

2. In past years, the Committee on Conferences has elected, in addition to the Chairman, three Vice-Chairmen and a Rapporteur.

3. At its organizational meeting for 1989, held on 1 March 1989, the Committee agreed in principle that henceforth the chairmanship would rotate annually among the regional groups.

2. Adoption of the agenda

3. Organization of work for 1990

4. At the same meeting, the Committee agreed in principle to adopt a biennial approach to its work, dealing with some agenda items in odd years and others in even years. The Committee also decided to review that practice at its organizational session for 1990 in the light of experience gained in 1989 and to consider bringing its organization of work into line with the programme budget cycle by instituting a biennial programme of work beginning in 1990-1991.

5. Subsequently, the General Assembly, by resolution 44/196 A of 21 December 1989, invited the Committee to adopt a more comprehensive programme of work, taking into account its responsibilities as established by the Assembly.

6. In organizing its work and in keeping with its past practices, the Committee may wish:

(a) To meet as required to consider proposed intersessional departures from the approved calendar;

(b) To conduct as much business as possible in informal consultations in order to curtail the number of official meetings, in particular by entrusting certain tasks to its Bureau;

(c) To authorize the Secretariat to deal with proposed changes in the calendar not having financial implications in consultation with the Bureau and to report to the Committee thereon.

7. Further meetings may be required in compliance with paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 35/10 A of 3 November 1980, by which the Assembly decided that all proposals affecting the schedule of conferences and meetings made at sessions of the Assembly should be reviewed by the Committee when administrative implications were being considered under the requirements of rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly.

4. Programme of work for 1990

8. The terms of reference of the Committee are set forth in paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 43/222 B of 21 December 1988.

9. Annexed to the present document is a draft annotated agenda for 1990. Should the Committee decide to institute a biennial programme of work beginning in 1990, it may also wish to stipulate which items it wishes to consider in even years and which items it wishes to consider in odd years. The Committee may also wish to determine the timing and duration of its 1990 substantive session and to specify its documentation requirements.

5. Review of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997: conference and library services

10. In paragraph 6 of section II of its resolution 43/219 of 21 December 1988, the General Assembly endorsed the recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination 1/ on the calendar of consultations proposed by the Secretary-General for the preparation of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/43/329/Add.1).

11. In accordance with that calendar of consultations, the Committee on Conferences, at its 300th meeting, on 24 August 1989, reviewed a draft outline of the chapter of the next medium-term plan governing conference and library services. The Committee decided to hold meetings in early 1990 to review the proposed medium-term plan for conference and library services in its final draft form as submitted by the Department of Conference Services.

ANNOTATIONS

1. Adoption of the agenda

2. Calendar of conferences and meetings:

(a) Adoption of the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings for 1991

1. In line with past practice, the Committee on Conferences will submit to the General Assembly at its forty fifth session the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings for 1991. In view of the comments made by delegations during the discussion of the draft calendar for the biennium 1988-1989, a/ the Secretariat will issue the draft revised calendar for 1991 as early as possible.

2. As agreed by the Committee at its 1989 substantive session, b/ bodies whose mandates are due to expire at 31 December 1990, but are expected to be presented for renewal to the General Assembly at its forty-fifth session, will be reflected in the draft revised calendar immediately following the last entry for 1991.

(b) Improved utilization of conference-servicing resources: meeting statistics of United Nations organs

3. In paragraph 6 of resolution 44/196 A of 21 December 1989, the General Assembly requested the Chairman of the Committee and the Secretary-General to maintain their contacts with United Nations organs that had failed to make adequate use of the conference-servicing resources provided to them in order to assist those organs in making better use of their services.

4. In paragraph 8 of the same resolution, the General Assembly requested the Committee to remain seized of the matter on the basis of further reports from the Secretary-General.

5. In paragraph 4 of the resolution, the General Assembly requested the Committee to review the methodology on conference-servicing utilization rates in order to provide, if possible, a more accurate assessment of the overall use of conference resources with a view to enabling United Nations bodies to make the optimum use of conference services and to facilitate, where necessary, continued rationalization of their meeting requirements.

6. The Committee has studied a series of reports since 1983 showing the meetings statistics of a number of United Nations organs in New York, Geneva and Vienna. At its 1989 substantive session, c/ the Committee requested that the statistical information presented be expanded to include other bodies.

7. At its 295th meeting, on 21 August 1989, the Committee agreed on a refined methodology, which was put into effect as at 1 January 1990 and will be applied to compiling the statistical information to be presented to the Committee in 1991 for bodies that will have met during 1990. The data to be before the Committee in 1990 will, therefore, not reflect the changes as a result of the new methodology.

8. In view of the interrelated nature of the above-cited requests, the timing involved and the past practice of the Secretariat of including a section on methodology on conference-servicing utilization rates in the document on meetings statistics, the Committee may wish to review the overall question of methodology based on the statistical information to be presented for bodies having met in 1989 with a view to analysing the methodology in detail in 1991, based on the statistical information to be presented for bodies having met in 1990.

9. In paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 44/196 A, the Chairman of the Committee was requested to write to the chairmen of bodies that were not considered to have adequately utilized the resources provided to them. Replies to the Chairman's letter will be circulated as a document of the Committee for consideration at its 1990 session.

(c) Improved organization of work and effective use of conference resources: existing conference resources, services and facilities within the United Nations

10. At its 296th to 299th meetings, on 22 and 23 August 1989, the Committee reviewed the draft calendar of conferences and meetings for the biennium 1990-1991. During that discussion, some representatives drew attention to the distribution of conference activitiy among the available conference centres.

11. At the end of its consideration of that item, the Committee concluded that the Secretariat should provide relevant information on the issue, including a revised version of the documents containing data on conference resources, services and facilities within the United Nations to the Committee at its next session in order for the Committee to consider the matter further. d/

3. Control and limitation of documentation

(a) Communications from Member States circulated as documents of the United Nations

12. In paragraphs 1 and 2 of its resolution 43/222 C of 21 December 1988, the General Assembly renewed its appeal to Member States to exercise restraint in their requests for the circulation of communications as United Nations documents and appealed to Member States making such requests to endeavour to keep the length of the communications to a minimum.

13. In paragraph 3 of the same resolution, the General Assembly requested the Committee to keep the matter under review and to report to the Assembly at its forty-fifth session. At its organizational session in 1989, the Committee decided to consider a report on the matter at its 1990 session.

(b) Reports of subsidiary organs to the General Assembly: compliance with the desirable 32-page limit

14. In paragraph 5 of its resolution 43/222 C, the General Assembly again requested that subsidiary organs strive to keep their reports to the Assembly within the desirable limit of 32 pages originally laid down in resolution 37/14 C of 16 November 1982.

15. In paragraph 6 of the same resolution, the General Assembly invited the Committee to remain seized of the matter on the basis of further reports from the Secretary-General. As with item 3 (a) (see paras. 12 and 13), the Committee decided to consider the matter at its 1990 substantive session, on the basis of a report to be submitted at that time, with a view to reporting to the Assembly at its forty-fifth session.

(c) Provision of summary records to subsidiary organs of the General Assembly

16. In resolution 44/196 B, the General Assembly decided to extend for a further year the experimental period established by Assembly resolution 37/14 C, during which no subsidiary organ of the Assembly should be entitled to summary records, with seven exceptions.

17. At its 294th meeting, on 21 August 1989, e/ the Committee decided to review the question of written meeting records in more depth at its 1990 substantive session. The Committee may wish to do so on the basis of a written report from the Secretariat.

4. Improved co-ordination of conferences within the United Nations system: implementation of General Assembly resolution 43/222 B, paragraph 4 (f)

18. In paragraph 4 (f) of its resolution 43/222 B, which sets forth the terms of reference of the Committee, the General Assembly decided, inter alia, that the Committee should "make recommendations, as appropriate, to the General Assembly on means to ensure an improved co-ordination of conferences within the United Nations system, including conference services and facilities, and to conduct the appropriate consultations in that regard".

19. At its 300th meeting, on 24 August 1989, f/ the Committee agreed that it should examine how best it could address its terms of reference as governed by paragraph 4 (f) of General Assembly resolution 43/222 B, and requested the Secretariat to examine the current status of co-ordination, identifying any difficulties or problems and suggesting possible solutions with a view to making the necessary improvements.

20. The Committee further requested its Chairman to address a letter to the Chairman of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination in order to avail itself of the opportunity to benefit from that Committee's views. Subsequently, the Organizational Committee of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination decided to refer the matter to the Inter-agency Meeting for Language Arrangements, Documentation and Publications, which is scheduled to meet in June 1990.

21. If the Committee on Conferences so decides, therefore, the Secretariat would present a progress report on the matter for consideration at the Committee's 1990 session, with a view to considering the matter in detail at its 1991 session.

5. United Nations publications policy: implementation of General Assembly resolution 43/222 B, paragraph 4 (h)

22. In paragraph 4 (h) of its resolution 43/222 B, the General Assembly decided, inter alia, that the Committee should "monitor the policy of the Organization on publications, with the assistance of the Publications Board of the Secretariat and taking into account positions adopted by the Committee on Information and other relevant bodies".

23. At its 294th meeting, on 21 August 1989, the Committee considered the report of the Secretary-General on recurrent publications of the United Nations (A/AC.172/131), which included the results of reviews conducted by a number of intergovernmental bodies of the publications for which they were responsible.

24. At the end of its consideration of that item, the Committee concluded that it would consider the matter in more detail at its 1990 session on the basis of further reports from the Secretariat, which would include, inter alia, a statistical analysis of the volume of work involved and the level of resources required in the production of recurrent publications.

6. Possibility of central planning and co-ordination of all organizational aspects of conference servicing

25. In paragraph 5 of its resolution 42/207 B of 11 December 1987, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to examine the possibility of having all organizational aspects of conference servicing in the United Nations as a whole centrally planned and co-ordinated, with a view to ensuring optimum efficiency and cost-effectiveness by, inter alia, minimizing duplication and overlapping, taking into account the outcome of the deliberations of the Special Commission of the Economic and Social Council on the In-depth Study of the United Nations Intergovernmental Structure and Functions in the Economic and Social Fields and the implementation of paragraph 4 of the same resolution and to submit his findings and recommendations to the General Assembly through the Committee on Conferences.

26. The Secretariat reported to the Committee at its 1988 session g/ that the Special Commission had reported to the Economic and Social Council in July 1988, and that the Council had submitted the report (E/1988/75) to the General Assembly for action at its forty-third session.

27. In paragraph 2 of its resolution 43/174 of 9 December 1988, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, taking into account, inter alia the report of the Special Commission of the Economic and Social Council and the outcome of discussions in 1989 on the revitalization of the Council, to report to the Assembly at its forty-fourth session on the implementation of recommendations 2 and 8 of the Group of High-level Intergovernmental Experts to Review the Efficiency of the Administrative and Financial Functioning of the United Nations. h/

28. The Secretariat reported to the Committee at its 1989 session, i/ that the Economic and Social Council had adopted resolution 1989/114 on further measures for implementation of resolution 1988/77 on the revitalization of the Council.

29. In paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of resolution 44/103, the General Assembly took note of the note of the Secretary-General on the review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations, decided to review the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations in the economic, social and related fields; stressed the need for the full implementation of Economic and Social Council resolutions 1988/77 and 1989/114, and requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on the implementation of those resolutions to the Council in order for the Council to review the matter at its second regular session in 1990. The Secretariat will keep the Committee informed of developments in this regard.

7. Meetings of organs and programmes not funded from the regular budget of the United Nations

30. At the 6th meeting of the forty-third session of the Fifth Committee, on 11 October 1988, a question was raised regarding the provision of conference services by the Department of Conference Services to meetings of organs and programmes not funded from the regular budget of the United Nations. The Secretariat was requested to provide, inter alia: a list of such organs and programmes and the location of their meetings; and a description of the conference services provided to those organs and programmes. That information was subsequently provided to the Fifth Committee.

31. At the same meeting, the Chairman of the Committee on Conferences indicated that the question could be included in the provisional agenda to be considered by the Committee at its organizational meeting in 1989. At that meeting, the Committee decided to examine this matter at its 1990 substantive session. The Committee may wish to do so based on a written report from the Secretariat.

8. Application of new technology to conference servicing

32. At its 1987 session, the Committee discussed the report of the Joint Inspection Unit on the management of interpretation services in the United Nations system, the related comments of the Secretary-General and a Secretariat report on the application of computer technology to the management of interpretation services and the meetings programme (A/41/648, A/42/95 and A/AC.172/123).

33. At its organizational session for 1989, the Committee requested the Secretariat to provide an oral progress report on the application of new technology to conference servicing at its 1989 substantive session and to examine the matter in depth in 1990. The Committee may wish to consider a report from the Secretariat detailing further developments in the field and their applications to conference servicing.

9. Other business

34. In paragraph 4 of its resolution 44/196 B, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to analyse the printing requirements of the Organization and to recommend proposals to the Assembly at its forty-fifth session, through the Committee on Conferences and the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, to maximize the cost-effectiveness of external and internal printing. If the Committee so decides, the Secretariat would submit the report on the matter to the Committee at its 1990 substantive session.

35. At its 1989 session, following discussions on its future organization of work, the Committee agreed j/ that it should play a role in the review of the Department of Conference Services as envisaged by the Secretary-General in his final report to the General Assembly on the implementation of resolution 41/213 of 19 December 1986 (A/44/222).

36. At the same meeting, the Committee further decided that the exact nature of the role "will be determined in more detail as a result of further review of the question during the Committee's organizational session, taking into account the decisions of the General Assembly on the matter". j/

37. Subsequently, the General Assembly adopted resolution 44/196 A, in which, in paragraph 10, it took note of the Committee's intention to play a role in the review of the Department of Conference Services envisaged by the Secretary-General, on the understanding that the role to be determined by the Committee at its 1990 session would be in full accordance with its mandate and in conformity with Assembly resolution 43/222 B.

38. The Committee may therefore wish to consider the question under other business.

10. Adoption of the report

39. In keeping with paragraph 6 of section I of General Assembly resolution 40/243 of 18 December 1985, the Committee should complete its report not later than 1 September 1989. Any activity after the adoption of that report can be included in an addendum if necessary.

Annotations for 1990

1. Adoption of the agenda

2. Calendar of conferences and meetings:

(a) Adoption of draft revised calendar for 1991

This sub-item will be taken up in August 1990 on the basis of a conference room paper (see also annotations in document A/AC.172/132).

(b) Improved utilization of conference-servicing resources: meeting statistics of United Nations organs

This sub-item will be taken up in August 1990 on the basis of document A/AC.172/88/Add.8. It was further agreed that the section of that document, outlining the methodology employed in the compilation and presentation of the statistical information will form the basis of the Committee's review pursuant to paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 44/196 A (see also annotations in document A/AC.172/132).

Another document (A/AC.172/96/Add.7) will contain replies from the chairmen of other bodies to letters written by the Chairman of the Committee on Conferences at the Committee's request.

(c) Improved organization of work and effective use of conference resources:

(i) Existing conference resources, services and facilities within the United Nations

Consideration of this sub-item will begin in 1990, on the basis of a Secretariat report containing updated information on the documents containing data on conference resources, services and facilities within the United Nations.

(ii) Possibility of central planning and co-ordination of all organizational aspects of conference servicing

The Secretariat will provide an oral progress report on this matter at its August 1990 session.

3. Control and limitation of documentation:

(a) Communications from Member States circulated as documents of the United Nations

The Committee will take up this matter in August 1990 on the basis of a conference room paper.

(b) Reports of subsidiary organs to the General Assembly: compliance with the desirable 32-page limit

The Committee will take up this matter in August 1990 on the basis of a conference room paper.

(c) Provision of summary records to subsidiary organs of the General Assembly

The Committee will take up this matter in August 1990 on the basis of a conference room paper.

(d) Review of the implementation of all rules and recommendations relating to control and limitation of documentation

The Secretariat was requested to provide statistical information on compliance with the rules relating to documentation, including inter alia Secretariat compliance with the six-week rule. The Committee will take up the matter in August 1990 on the basis of a conference room paper.

(e) Analysis of printing requirements of the Organization

The Committee will take up the matter on the basis of the Secretariat report requested by the General Assembly (see also annotations in document A/AC.172/132).

4. United Nations publications policy: implementation of General Assembly resolution 43/222 B, paragraph 4 (h)

The Committee will take up this matter in 1990, on the basis of a Secretariat report which would include, inter alia, a statistical analysis of the volume of work involved and the level of resources required in the production of recurrent publications.

5. Application of new technology to conference servicing

This item will be considered in 1990 on the basis of a Secretariat report.

6. Role of Committee on Conferences in review of the Department of Conference Services

For the Committee's consideration of this item, the Secretariat was requested to make available Section Q/Rev.2 and Corr.1 and Section S, respectively, of the Secretary-General's bulletin ST/SGB/Organization of 1 May 1983, which sets out the functions and organization of the Department of Conference Services at Headquarters and the Division of Conference Services at Geneva.

7. Requests for exceptions to paragraph 7 of General Assembly resolution 40/243

In accordance with established procedure, chairmen of subsidiary organs of the General Assembly wishing to meet at Headquarters during the forty-fifth session of the General Assembly should submit their requests to the Chairman of the Committee on Conferences. Requests so received will be considered by the Committee on the basis of a conference room paper.

8. Review of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997: conference and library services

In accordance with the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Committee will review the proposed medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997: conference and library services, in August 1990.

9. Other business

The Committee agreed to review and revise, as necessary, the format of its report to the General Assembly during its substantive session.

10. Adoption of the report
